

Relationships Under Construction is the best sex education curriculum I have reviewed in years! It starts early and includes parents. RUC should be taught in every school, church, and youth organization across the country. This dynamic curriculum gets incredible results when presented by passionate teachers, parents and youth leaders."

Who We Are

teaches youth the blueprint for strong future relationships, goal setting, how to recognize healthy and unhealthy relationships, and dating violence while exploring the issues of fatherhood, motherhood and healthy family formation.

Our program addresses character development, motherhood and healthy family formation, recognizing the issues of fatherhood, motherhood and healthy family formation.

RUC is a sexual risk avoidance curriculum. Consequences of early sexual activity including STI/STDs, teen pregnancies and emotional bonding, can negatively impact future relations. RUC helps teens and parents understand why avoiding these risks is so important.

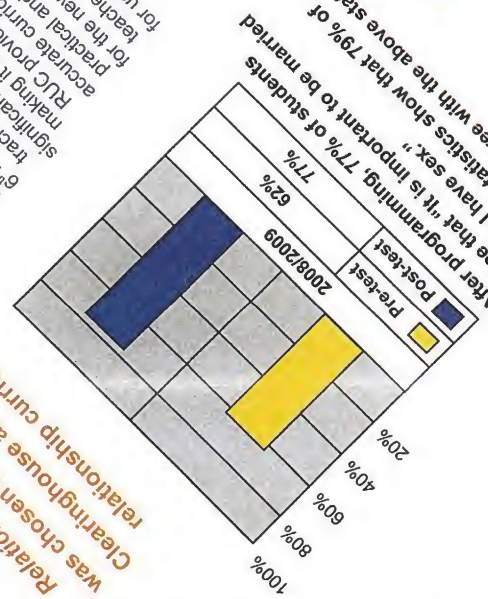

"This is absolutely the best way to help students realize the many consequences of premarital sexual activity. The students respond well to room invective, non-threatening sexual respect of the factual information presented as truths – not propaganda."

Who We Are

Relationships Under Construction was chosen by the National Abstinence Clearinghouse as the #1 most impactful relationship curriculum for students.

Relationships Under Construction is a well-designed curriculum for 6th-12th grades with a proven track record of statistically significant evidence-based, accurate curriculum that is for the new or experienced teacher. I recommend it for use in middle and high schools everywhere."
Peggy Hartshorn, PhD, President, Heartbeat International

After programming, 77% of students agree that "It is important to be married before I have sex." In 2012, statistics show that 79% of students agree with the above statement.
